CARE AND USE

Please retain instructions for future reference.

Before first use Hand-wash thoroughly.

Using the cookware Suitable for use on hobs, including induction, and in a domestic oven up to 240 °C/Gas Mark 9.

For optimum efficiency, place the cookware on hob rings equivalent to the base size.

Do not let flames overlap the sides or handles.

To increase the longevity of the cookware, it is recommended to use silicone, wooden or nylon utensils.

Do not use metal utensils.

Do not overheat the cookware or allow to boil dry.

Never leave unattended whilst in use.

Due to the heavy weight of cast iron, take extra caution to avoid damage to ceramic hobs.

Always lift the cookware and carefully place down, rather than drag it across hob surfaces.

Cleaning and storing the cookware Always allow to cool before cleaning.

Hand-wash using a mild detergent and nonabrasive sponge, rinse and dry thoroughly.

This cookware is not dishwasher safe.

Do not store wet cookware, as this may result in rusting.

Caution Always use heat-resistant oven gloves to move the cookware.

Never expose hot cookware to cold liquid.

If there is any evidence of damage to the cookware, dispose of it carefully.

Cast iron is heavy, exercise caution when using.

Not suitable for deep fat frying.
