Smith 8.5-in. W Outdoor Motion Sensor Wall Light
Textured Black

Textured Black Metal

Contemporary

Product Description:

The Smith outdoor wall light combines a clean contemporary look with practical security lighting for everyday exterior use. Finished in textured black with a wide metal shade, it delivers focused illumination that complements modern and transitional home exteriors. Dualux dual-level motion technology provides soft dusk lighting, activates full brightness when motion is detected, and automatically returns to low-level illumination for efficient, always-on security. Wet rated steel construction ensures dependable outdoor performance for entryways, garages, and walkways, making it a refined solution for enhancing exterior lighting with integrated motion control.
