MAS LA PLANA 2009

The most pristine bunches of old-vine Cabernet Sauvignon are hand selected to craft Torres' most prestigious red wine. A 1979 blind tasting in Paris, the Gault-Millau Wine Olympics, placed some of the world's most respected wines such as Châteaux Latour against newcomers including Torres. The wine from Mas la Plana vineyard triumphed, placing first, and deserved recognition, putting Penedès on the map as benchmark quality for the best red wines in the world.

2009 VINTAGE NOTES:

Although overall climate conditions were normal in 2009, the weather varied throughout the year. The beginning of the vegetative cycle was cold and rainy, but most of the growth period was warm and dry, particularly the ripening stage, which accelerated this process. The quality of the harvest was good: very healthy grapes with high sugar levels.
