Sutton Collection

Sutton 12.25-in. H Outdoor Motion Sensor Wall Light Matte Black

Clear Seeded Glass

Contemporary

Product Description:

Enhance exterior spaces with the Sutton outdoor wall light, featuring a built-in motion sensor and a clean matte black finish for a modern yet timeless look. A clear seeded glass tapered shade showcases the bulb while adding architectural interest to entryways, garages, and walkways. Crafted from durable steel and wet location rated, this fixture is designed to deliver reliable performance in outdoor environments throughout the year. Dualux dual-level motion technology provides soft dusk lighting, activates full brightness when motion is detected, and automatically returns to low-level illumination for efficient, always-on security.
